

The Hartford Preservation Alliance is conducting a free

Architectural Walking Tour of Asylum Hill

Saturday, May 15, 2004
10:00 - 11:30 a.m.

The tour will highlight various residential, commercial, and religious structures in and around the Asylum Hill Neighborhood. Information will be provided about the development of this section of Asylum Hill, its architectural styles, pedestrian scaled sidestreets, and the intricate craftsmanship of its homes.

Highlights include:

- Trinity Episcopal Church by Frederick C. Withers 1891-92
- Day Chamberlain House by Francis H. Kimball 1883-1884
- Aetna Life and Casualty Building by James Gamble Rogers 1929-31
- Historic houses and apartment buildings along Farmington Avenue, Woodland Street, Forest Street, Gillette Street, Laurel Street, and Niles Street

No reservations are required. Participants should meet at Asylum Hill Congregational Church, 814 Asylum Avenue. Parking is available in the church lot. Comfortable shoes & attire are advised.

For more information, call Matt Blood,
Hartford Preservation Alliance, at (860) 246-1067

Hartford
Preservation Alliance

Part of Preservation Week, an annual celebration to spotlight grassroots preservation efforts around the country • www.nationaltrust.org/preservationweek